E-mail address: miltonwitt@yahoo.com

Website:

Age: 53

Occupation: Financial Advisor

Residence: Taylorsville

Years at residence: 15

Qualifications: I have been married to Karen Dickson Witt for twenty eight years. We have six children and four grandchildren. I graduated with a Bachelors and a Masters Degree from Brigham Young University. I am originally from California and have lived in Utah for almost thirty years. My wife and I have been active in education all of our adult lives, serving in local PTA leadership positions. I am a founding and current Board member of Navigator Pointe Academy, a public charter school in West Jordan. Two of my children attend NPA and my four older children attended local public schools.

I am dedicated to helping all children in Utah have the best opportunities to succeed in their educational goals. For many years, I have worked with Granite District School Board members, state senators and representatives and parents to improve education in Utah. I have the passion and commitment to continue these successful efforts as a member of the State Board of Education. I will seek out, listen to and respond to input of all interested individuals regarding improvement to education in Utah.
